

Why censor speech from Deaf people? Just because we're deaf doesn't mean we're dumb. We have every right to watch television, too. Closed captioning bridges the gap between voiced tv and visually-based deaf people. Blocking CC would be like discrimination - television is only for hearing people, without rights of access for the deaf.

Think about it.